Editors Edict

Hi, this is Jamie Coker your yearbook editor of 2001-2002. The theme this year is "As Good as Gold... and Blue." We (the yearbook staff) thought it would be fun to have a yearbook focused on our school colors. As you flip though the color pages, almost everything is gold and blue. There are two or three pages focused on September 11 and how our country, community, and our very own school reacted to this tragedy. It has been a tough year trying to capture everyone in the spotlight. It was a goal of ours this year trying to get everyone in the yearbook more than just in your portrait and if we didn't get you in here more than once we are deeply sorry. I hope you remember and enjoyed this school year.

Nothing But Blue and Gold

Homecoming and Spirit Week
2001

Spirit week was a week of mix-matching, gender-bending, flashbacking, twinstyling, and blue and gold all over! Classes showed their best blue and gold spirit in the Hall Decoration Contest. Seniors came up with a genie theme that won them first place! Second place went to the Freshmen and their casino theme. In third place the mighty juniors who showed off their hall with a smurf theme. Last but not least, sophomores pulled off a starry night of blue and gold.

When the parade rolled around so did the Homecoming Float Contest. Freshmen cashed in their chips with the casino theme, winning first place! Second place went to the seniors with the genie theme and VICA won third place in a tribute to America.

In the Spirit Link Contest, the seniors pulled out their money and bought 5,280 links to take first place. In second place were juniors with 1,832, and third place went to sophomores with 1,386. The freshmen came in last with 1,140 links. All the Spirit Link Contest money went to the American Red Cross.

The spirit stick was awarded to the seniors, as they screamed their way to victory.

Good Nights Must Come to a End

The 2000-2001 prom was an exciting event for the class of 2001 and 2002. From the junior class, Kareem Morse was crowned prince and Stephanie McClaskie was crowned princess. From the senior class, Kenya Williams was crowned king and Brandi Cave was crowned queen.

The prom was held on the evening of May 19, 2001 at the Fort Lee Officers Club. Every couple was interviewed by the camera for the prom video. The night included the senior walk, when every senior and his or her date was recognized. The experience of prom is one in a million. Mardi Gras will stay in the hearts of the classes of 2001 and 2002 forever.

Homecoming 2001

Nothing but Blue and Gold

Homecoming 2001

The 2001 Homecoming theme this year was "Nothing but Blue and Gold." Homecoming consisted of spirit week, the bonfire, the parade, the football game, and a dance. The senior class won almost every event this year including the hallway contest, in which the seniors pulled off the win with a genie theme. They also won the spirit links contest with a total of 5,280 spirit links, and the spirit stick. The class that kept the senior class from the perfect streak was the freshman class, who won the float contest with a casino theme. On Thursday, the bonfire helped the football team members get pumped up for Friday's game. Hopewell defeated the Colonial Heights Colonials 47-13 in what turned out to be a very long game. This year's Homecoming King and Queen were Kareem Morse and Stephanie McClaskie. The first runners up were Travis Amos and Stacey Vega and the second runners up were Scott Honaker and Shante Lofton. To end spirit week students arrived in the cafeteria for the Homecoming Dance after the game.

Good luck, Good-bye, and Good for you

Students say graduation is the best part of high school. When you walk across the stage and receive that piece of paper, known as a diploma, you're leaving those good old days of high school and getting ready for the real world.

Most students never think of graduation when they first arrive as a freshmen in the high school. Those years go by so fast, and before they know it, graduation has arrived. Students should cherish everday of high school before it's all over.

And to the graduating class of 2001, Hopewell High School will never forget all contributions and dedications they left behind.

And to future graduates, try to make high school memorable, before it's your turn to walk across the stage and receive your diploma.

A NIGHT TO REMEMBER

A Good Night To Remember

The Night of the Miss HHS Pageant was a night no one would ever forget. There were forty-five girls in the pageant. The judges were Mr. Marcus Mason, Mrs. Tia Lanae Phillips-Bentil, Mrs. Thada Emery, Mrs. Jessica Haddad, and Mr. Turner Plunkett. The girls were judged on seven categories: their smile, walk, posture, poise, overall appearance, school involvement, and answer to the question. The top ten candidates were Patrice Williams, Jessica Aultman, Elizabeth Chiarky, Sheena Dudley, Amanda Lewis, Stephanie McClaskie, Jennifer Ellis, Geniva Newbill, Tracey Holden, and Ivon-Marie Velez-Munoz. By the end of the night, it came down to Geniva Newbill as our Miss HHS , Amanda Lewis as our first runner-up, and Patrice Williams as our second runner-up. The memories that night will always be cherished and remembered.

South Pacific

The play took place during World War Two. Nelly Furbush played by sophomore Kiffy Johnson was a U.S. nurse who fell in love with Frenchmen Senor De'Beck who was played by sophomore Mark Hayes. Nelly was stationed on the island during the war. The play was meant to send out the message that racism is wrong ,no matter what a person's background is. The play was filled with excitement and emotion from the comedy scenes to the songs and romance. Hopewell High School's theatre group has pulled off another breath taking show.

Ring Cermony

Class of

Below: Caryn Clark, Alyssa Martin, Kiffy Johnson, and Dani Antol show off their new class rings.

On October 18, 2001 the junior class received their class rings in the cafeteria at 3:00 p.m. A representative from Herff Jones, Mrs. Slagle, Scott Honaker, and Mr. Kirby spoke before giving out the class rings. Following the ceremony the class moved to the library for refreshments. Thanx to the catering class for making the beautiful cake. While eating cake and drinking punch many juniors had their ring turned by their classmates. Turning the ring is a tradition here at Hopewell High and also at other schools. The juniors had to have their ring turned 103 times (102 times toward the pinky for good luck and the 103rd time toward the middle finger to be locked). The ring is suppose to be worn so that the student wearing it can read it and when he graduates he should turn it so others can read it. I hope everyone loves his or her ring.

HOPEWELL

In Memory of

Betty Aldridge Williams

Betty Williams, who was a business teacher for many years here at HHS, died suddenly last summer leaving many of her friends and students with much sadness. When most of us think about Mrs Williams, we think of her many contributions to HHS and her dedication to her students.

Betty was orginally from Arlington, Virginia and moved here in the 11th grade after her Mother's death. She graduated from HHS in 1973 and attended Longwood College, receiving her diploma in three years. She returned to Hopewell to teacher at Malonne and then at HHS. She was an active advisor of the FBLA and a popluar chaperone for the weekend conventions. Her co-worker and friend, Mrs Hatfield says, " She loved animals and was very fun to be around. She always took a personal interest in her students." Mrs Stallings agreed and also said, " we miss her a lot."

Varsity Softball

~Having a ball !~

The Varsity Softball team wins were 4-14. The overall wins in district were 2-10. Although the Lady Devils had a tough year, they showed Hopewell what they were made of in every game. The team although defeated at times, always showed good sportsmanship and played fairly. The varsity softball team did a good job this year.

Go For the Gold: Football 2001

Hopewell High School's 2001 varsity football team consisted of a total of 50 players. Hopewell finished the season with five wins and three losses. Hopewell held victories over Clover Hill, Meadowbrook, Colonial Heights, Dinwiddie, and Prince George. Hopewell suffered losses against Varina, Thomas Dale, and Petersburg.

The 2001 season was a very exciting year for Hopewell. The first special event of this year's season was Homecoming. Homecoming is considered to be the most important event of every football season to most H.H.S. students, faculty and Hopewell residents. This year's Homecoming was held on Friday October 12, 2001. Our Homecoming game was played against Colonial Heights and Hopewell was victorious. Senior Appreciation night is also and important part of the season. Senior Appreciation night was held on Friday Novemeber 2, 2001. This was the last game of the season and it was played against Prince George. Senior Appreciation night is held to honor all senior cheerleaders, football players, and band members and to congratulate them on their last football season at H.H.S.

The BEST Spirit Around

All Around Good

Top to Bottom:
- Ashley Pavlock, Sheena Dudley, and Lindsey Frankenstein express their sisterly bond.
- Dani Antol prepares herself for a flawless basket toss.
- JV and Varsity Cheerleaders wave to the crowd from their homecoming float.
- In their dorm room at summer camp, Lindsey Eubanks, Ashley Hock and Catie Horne prepare for their long awaited journey home.

Good Spirit . . . Great Accomplishments

This year our cheerleaders have worked extremely hard. During the summer they had intense fundraising so they could attend camp at Christopher Newport College. Throughout the time they were at camp, they devoted themselves to their love of cheerleading. Since camp, they had to balance their time with their regular practice and competition practice. Cutting it close to the deadline and losing some teamates, they got it together placing fourth at districts. Since so many mishaps had occured the girls thought about not competing because their original routine needed more girls than were available. The night before the competiton they decided to rearrange their routine to make it possible for them to compete. All went well, with a completely new routine. They placed fourteenth out of sixteen squads. Wonderful work ladies!

Most Embarassing Cheerleading Moments

Catie Horne

"We were at regionals and Emily stepped on my shoe and my foot came out, as we were walking out to do our routine. I had to play it off and put my shoe back on without anyone noticing."
-Catie!

Delilah Anders

"When I fly in a stunt, sometimes I almost fall. Everytime I almost fall, it's embarassing because I make this weird face like I'm scared, but trying to stay up there. I just look funny."
-Delilah

Rebecca Aultman

"Since I have been on the squad, the most embarassing moment was at district competition when the same stunt fell five times in a row on our practice mat time in front of everyone!

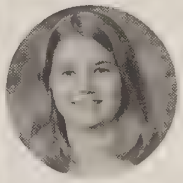
What is the one thing that you will miss the most about playing Girls Tennis?

Over the past three years, the other seniors and I have become really close. Being a part of the tennis team would not have been the same without this group of girls. We have been through a lot together and I am really going to miss them when I go to college.
Katie Miller



The things I will miss the most are my teammates and my coach Elwood "Woody" Whitlock. Since I have started three years ago I have gotten really close with the senior members. We had fun playing, talking on the bus together, and going out after the games to eat.I will never forget them.
Courtney Nichols

I'll miss my teammates most of all. It will be hard to adjust to a whole new team next year. Best wishes to the other seniors and good luck to the girls next year. Meghan Lowrance

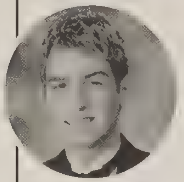
What made the Cross Country team a success?

Chip Dibling-Moore



" It was a success because we all worked hard, improved our times, and got through Coach Whipp's Friday workouts."

David Blaha

" This team was a success to me because we always tried our best, and no matter what the outcome was in the end we always had a good time."

QUOTE

I felt that the Cross Country team did a great job. The whole team lettered so that holds some kind of respect. We all did our best and that is what counts.

A Good Season To Remember

Fieldhockey was a great experience for all of us. We learned to work together as a team and accomplish many goals. The season started with getting up every morning at six, and practicing to do our best every time we hit the field. There are a few seniors leaving this year. They have taught us the real meaning of the game, and have shown us to always do our very best. We will miss them. We all worked hard through the season to improve our skills. We'll always remember this season and the memories that we shared together as a team.

~Lady Blue Devil Karen Crawford Recalls the Season!~

This basketball season I have learned that practice makes perfect, but that isn't really true. A perfect practice, makes a practice perfect. I also learned more about boxing out oppenents to get the rebound. This is a difficult skill to learn. It is difficult because you have to box out first, not after the ball comes to you. Most people don't think to box out first and then get the rebound. This was a challenging part for us, especially against Meadowbrook, because their team works so hard to achieve at basketball. Their team is strong and skillful, Meadowbrook was the Central District champions last year. Our practice was everday from 3:15 to 5:00 after school. We practiced about ten hours a week and even though it was only two hours a day, it was still tiring and fun at the same time. The Hopewell High School girls' varsity basketball team had one MVP and that was Quintesia Thomas. She scored at least 25 points a game. Five coaches helped the Lady Devils achieve their wins this year and they are Head Coach Walter Broner, Asst. Coach Eddie Shelburne, Asst. Coach Kelly Kirksey, Terry Little and Mrs. Constant. The greatest things about our coaches is that they helped us seek knowledge and they helped make it fun. They actually played during some of the practices and showed us the skills or skill they have. My favorite part of this season was just having fun with a group of girls the were crazy, motivating and just plan fun to be around.

Golden Hoops: Varsity Basketball 2001-2002

Varsity Basketball

The 2001-2002 Varsity Basketball team is made up of 13 talented players. The Blue Devils came out of this season holding 15 victories over opposing teams and only suffered 7 losses. Hopewell victories were held over Lakeland, M. Walker (2), Clover Hill, Meadowbrook(2), Colonial Heights(2), L.C. Bird, Midlothian, J.F. Kennedy, Petersburg, Dinwiddie(2), and Thomas Dale. In every basketball season, Hopewell plays each team twice, once home and once away. Also, the Blue Devils kept fans chanting and cheering at every game leading the team on for a victory. The talented Hopewell Blue Devils held the hopes of the fans on the court and they never let us down!

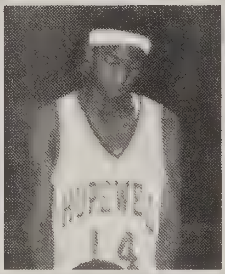
What was your favorite game of the season?

David Herrington

“ My favorite game has to be the last one against Prince George, and since that is our biggest rival, we wanted to win more.”



Dominique Tyler

“It would be against Motoaca, because I finished the game with 25 points.”

William Beach

“My favorite game was against Prince George because I made three three- pointers.”

A Good Take-Down

Our talented wrestlers overcame many obstacles this year, and in the end came out as District Champs! With six wins and zero losses in the district, we had two of our wrestlers, Mike Henderson and Markice Haskins, come out on top. Both received titles of District Champions in their weight class. They then went on with their teamates Paul Getty and Harold Branch to the Central Region competition. Mike came out third in the 119 weight class, Markice fourth in the 152 weight class, Paul second in the 275, and Harold came out fifth in the 171 weight class. Overall all the members of the wrestling team had a successful season.

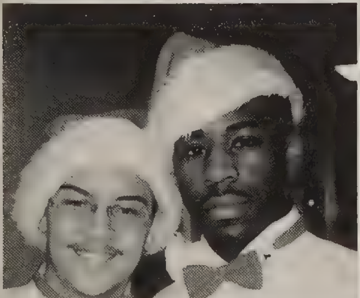
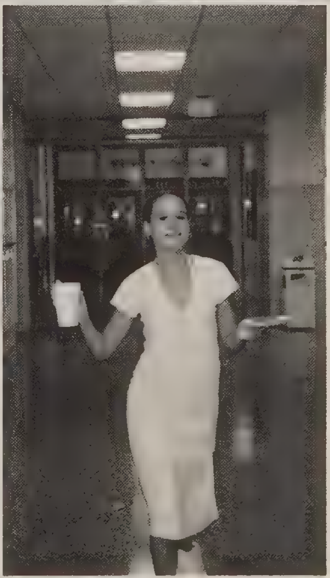
THE WIZARD OF OZ
MARCH 8, 9, 10





In the Career and Technical Educational Program, many great classes are offered for our students. Grades 9-12 can learn trades and skills to prepare them for further education after high school. These programs include five areas: 1.Business 2.Work and Family Studies 3.Trade and Industry 4. Marketing and 5. Technology Education.

From Left: (1)Josh Anderson and Angelo Mazzei repair side fenders in auto body class. (2)Kyle Grubb demonstrates a part of an air conditioner . (3)David Fisher measures a piece of metal that he plans on repairing. (4)Fred Wiggins , Terrance Wyche, and Cory Chinault plan a computerized blue print of their upcoming structure.

Weird Science: A Good Experiment

" One time I had to watch someone disect a guinea pig! People just shouldn't do that."

-Davonn Bassette

Tests, Tests, Tests

Right: "This is what I do when I study for a test I write it down so I can remember it."
-Chase Rigsby

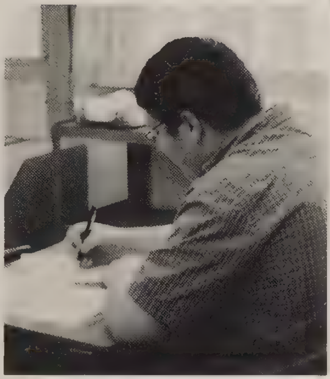
Right: "The hardest test I have ever taken was Mrs. Bell's world history test."
-Craig Wise

Above: "The hardest test I ever taken was the SOLs."
-Joseph Holloway

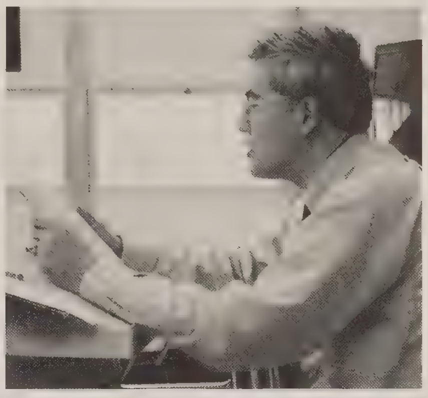
Right: "The hardest test I have ever taken was the spelling test on Fridays."
-Beth Macieod

Right: "The things I do when I study for a test is go over it again and again."
- Brandon Cintron

Good English

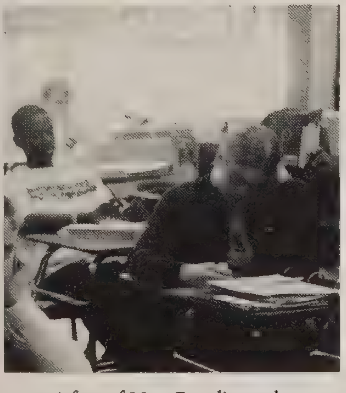


Robert Beisser concentrates hard on his test.

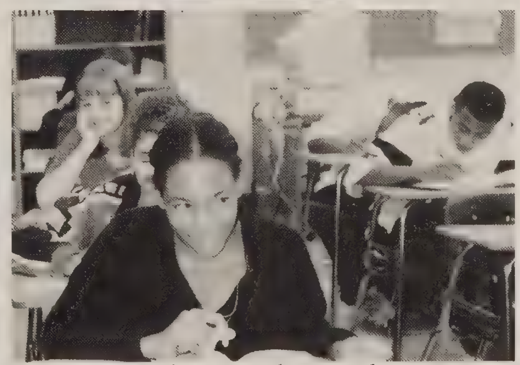


Mr. Witherow reads aloud to his students.

Jennifer Bradley, Sharee Byrd, Cindy Harder, Betty Harney, and Emily Nobles listen to a short story in their books.



A few of Mrs. Bond's students concentrate on their worksheets.



Mr Witherow's students pay close attention to the directions given in class.

Kerri Dibling-Moore and Katie Hoover listen carefully to Mrs. Bond.

Fun Day

Below: Mr. Broner learns CPR from the Hopewell Emergency Squad.

Students look forward to Fun Day in the spring because it gives them a chance to socialize and participate in a variety of activities for two or maybe three periods that day.

Activities included: karoke, chess, movies (After prom and pageant videos),Obstacle course, CPR Practice, Manicures,freestyle pictures, putt putt, twister, softball, tennis, and free hot dogs.

"Fun Day this year was a different experience being that it was indoors...But the obstacle course was awesome!"

-Rashaad Pride

bove: Richard Green slides down the end of the obstacle course with a smile on his face.

Kaleidoscope
2001-2002
Yearbook Staff

This year the staff for The Kaleidoscope included sponsor Mrs. Stacey Hipps, Editor Jamie Coker and staff members Raven Wray, Amy Barbour, Laurie Blaha, Lindsey Frankenstein, Stephanie McClaskie, Latesha Peace, Emily Cruppenink, Dianna Ashley, and Lauren Wyatt. It was a stressful year but the staff had fun while working on the yearbook. The staff members worked well together and each and everyone of them worked very hard.

Colophon

2001-2002

This year the yearbook staff picked a cover that represents their name Kaleidoscope.
330 copies were printed. The staff used the program Year Tech-Pro Program and Adobe PageMaker. Our publishing company was Jostens Publishing and our Jostens Representative is JanDefalco. Our photography company is LifeTouch, and our main photographer is Darryl Nelson. Using Last Name First and autoflow created the index. Using PanelXpress created the portrait pages. There are 168 pages in the yearbook.

-Jamie Coker, Editor

2001-2002 Editor

"As Editor I had to teach the staff how to work the Pagemaker Program. It wasn't a hard job but trying to meet the deadlines was stressful." -Jamie Coker
